

2022 Jacko500 Racing

August 2022

JULY RECAP

I did not have as many races in July but the ones I did compete in were important. First up was MRFKC race 5 and 6 where I raced both Mini ROK and Briggs Jr. Lite.

Race 5 was a long day, in Mini ROK I had a mechanical failure and had to retire from the race with 2 laps to go. In Briggs, I was run over by a fellow competitor on the first lap, I was able to get back going and charged back. Over the course of 20 laps I overcame an almost 10 second gap and passed 4 people to finish in 4th.

Race 6 we bounced back and finished on the podium for both classes, 3rd in Mini ROK and 2nd in Jr. Lite.

Rockstar Recruiting hosted a fun, Sponsor Appreciation race, we were able to invite our Gold and Platinum sponsors to race it out on the track. I gave the the best tips I could and we all had a great time.

At the end of July, I was also invited to participate in a charity race for Cole's World. Cole Hernandez is someone I raced in 2020, he sadly passed away from Leukemia and this race was raising money for his charity. It was a honour to race in his memory.

The logo for Jacko 500 racing. It features the words 'JACKO' and '500' in a large, bold, yellow font with a black outline. To the right of the text is a graphic of a checkered flag and flames.

AUGUST RACES

2022 CANADIAN KARTING CHAMPIONSHIP

My biggest race of the year is coming up, this is the one we have been looking forward to all year. There are other races in August but this is the one that matters. I finished 5th at the 2021 Canadian Karting Championship, I have been working very hard this year and hope to make it on the podium this time.

MY SPONSORS

Racing a full schedule can be very expensive and would not be possible without the support of my family and sponsors. Thank you so much for helping me chase my dreams! Please support those who support me.
