AUGUST RECAP

We only had 2 races in August but one of them was the biggest race in Canada. Here is a recap of the Canadian Karting Championship. This is a 4 day event with 1 day of practice and 3 days of racing. The racing starts with Qualifying which sets the order for the heat races, we then have 2 heat races which set the order for the prefinal, all building toward the final.

We were very fast throughout practice, consistently setting top 3 times but our qualifying did not go great. I had a hard time finding a good draft partner and ended up qualifying in 7th.

The first Heat Race did not go much better, we were struggling with Kart setup, particularly grip and were only able to hold on to 7th. Our first day was disappointing but we knew we had the pace to compete. Our team boss Trevor Wickens made some setup changes to increase our grip and we were ready to go after it on day 2.

Heat Race 2 we were finally able to show our pace and finished in 2nd. After the heats we started the pre-final in 4th. Unfortunately I made a mistake on the opening lap of the pre-final that put me back in 9th but I didn't give up, I charged back and finished in 5th. We were as ready as ever to start the final.

The logo for Jacko 500 racing, featuring the text "JACKO 500" in a bold, yellow, stylized font with a black outline. The number "500" is larger and more prominent. To the right of the text is a graphic of a checkered flag and a flame.

Starting in 5th against the best racers in the country was never going to be easy but we were up for the challenge. I had a good start and was able to work my way through the field and ended up finishing the Canadian Karting Championship in 2nd place. I was initially disappointed that we missed out on the win, especially as I believe I had the pace but my goal was to finish on the podium and I am proud we were able to achieve that. With the podium I earned a ticket to ROK Vegas which is the biggest ROK Race in North America. Our only other race this month was a club race where we were able to take the win, overall it was a great August.
