

2024 Jacko500 Racing

MAY 2024

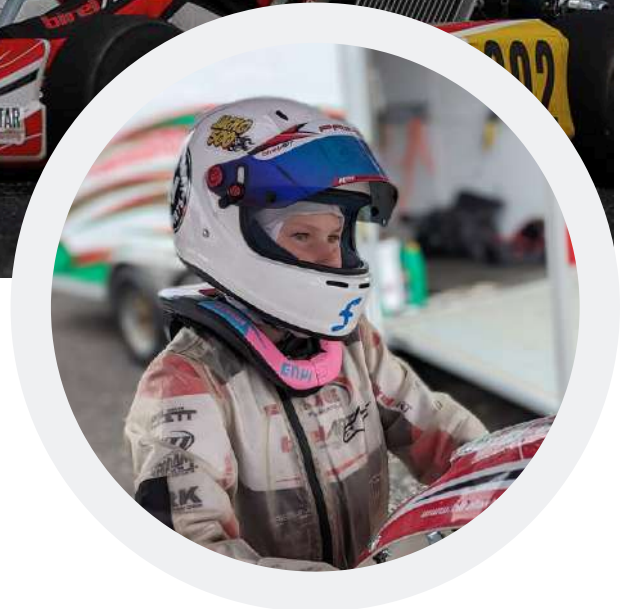

BACK ON TRACK

Our Canadian Racing Season has finally gotten underway and we have been busy. We have taken every possible opportunity for practice and have already logged over 1,000 laps getting ready for the big races.

The adjustment to Jr is challenging as I often find myself wanting to drive the same lines and use the same braking points that I was so accustomed to in Mini but I am making progress and getting better every session.

I have had great coaching with the Prime Team and have been able to cut my lap times down considerably and while there is still a lot to learn I am confident we will be where we need to be come race day.

CLUB RACES

Our first National Race is coming up May 11-12 but before then we got started with some club racing in the Briggs Jr. Class with the Hamilton Regional Kart Club.

Race 1 was a bit of a disappointment but we learned valuable lessons. We were down on pace all day qualifying in 9th and finishing the Pre-Final in 11th. We thought it might be an engine issue so we decided to swap engines for the final and took the corresponding penalty meaning we had to start at the back for the final.

While changing the engine we found our problem. The Axle had shifted and the brake disk had been rubbing the whole day. This was a quick fix and the final was more like it and we were able to go from last to 4th.

Ahead of Race 2 we had our Briggs Engines serviced by PRO and we had great power all day. We qualified in 3rd and in the Pre-Final we had some tight racing going back and forth and were able to come out with the win.

In the Final, my best friend and Teammate Ari worked together to push away from the pack and built a 5 second lead. On the last two laps we battled each other hard exchanging the lead. He finished 1st on track but was given a penalty for avoidable contact promoting me to the top step. This is not how I wanted to win but a win is a win!

Looking forward to the upcoming big races this month with Ron Fellows Round 1 and Ontario Interclub Round 1.
